Better than Cats (Andrews McMeel Publishing; 2009), New York Times best-selling author Bradley Trevor Grieve pairs up with award-winning photographer Rachael Hale to explore the long-time—nay, epic—clash between dogs and cats. But lest you love your tabby as much as your terrier, fear not: Grieve's not condemning felines, but rather celebrating canines. Paired with Hale's beautiful, funny and stirring images, the book is a must-have for dog lovers and cat cuddlers alike.
